St Lastra's Well: The Annual Blessing of St Lastra's Well in Aghavilla, Donaghmoynes will take place next Sunday 6th May at 3.00pm. (First Sunday of May). We invite those who would like to come for the Blessing to gather on the N2 road (from Carrickmacross to Castleblayney) about one mile from Carrickmacross at about 2.45pm. when we will proceed over the lane to the Well for the Blessing and Prayers. Tober Lastra: The Book on the "Parishes of Clogher" states: "The Survey of 1736 states "Here stands a celebrated Well called Tober Lastra, in the townland of Aghavilla, to which comes many pilgrims. It is recorded as a very good place to come to for the cure of sore eyes; some have certainly got healing there. Within living memory, large numbers of people gather at this Well on the first Sunday of May". Two female saints – St. Lastra and St. Cera are linked with Donaghmoynes Parish, almost back to the time of St. Patrick.
